

W I S C O N S I N SCIENCE FESTIVAL? CURIOSITY UNLEASHED.

Events

PUMPKIN CARVING

Friday, October 11 | 4 - 5:30 pm

Crossroads at Big Creek

Come carve a pumpkin with friends and family! Pumpkins and carving tools provided. [RSVP 920-746-5895]

FARMING FOR THE FUTURE I

Monday, October 14 | 5:30 - 6:30 pm

Sturgeon Bay Library

Using ecological farming to produce great tasting and healthy food to improve the environment and local communities.

CLIMATE IMPACTS TO APPLE FLAVOR

Monday, October 14 | 5:30 - 7 pm

Crossroads at Big Creek

Presentation discussing how climate conditions impact apple flavor with Peninsular Agricultural Research Station Superintendent Becky Wiepz.

STORYTIME WITH MISS BETH

Tuesday, October 15 | 10:30 - 11 am

Sturgeon Bay Library

(Around the Farm: A visit with Candis Dart from 4-H) Come enjoy stories and fun with Miss Beth - for babies, toddlers, and preschoolers.

HIVE CHEMISTRY 101

Tuesday, October 15 | 6:30 pm

Crossroads at Big Creek

The Beekeepers of Door County will put on demonstrations processing bee products. Sponsored by Door County Beekeeper Club.

STORYTIME WITH MISS JENNY

Wednesday, October 16 | 10:30 am

Sister Bay/Liberty Grove Library

(Farming and Friends with Candis Dart from 4-H) Stories and interactive fun for you and your babies, toddlers, and preschoolers! Enjoy singing, movement, and related crafts.

SOIL-VEGGIE CONNECTION

Wednesday, October 16 | 5:30 pm

Crossroads at Big Creek

Join Jamie Patton, USDA Soil Scientist, to learn how soils influence growth, taste, and nutrition of veggies and fruits.

WHAT GOES ON AT THE PARS?

Wednesday, October 16 | 12:30-4:00 pm

Peninsular Agricultural Research Station

Check in the the office then head out to walk the fields, talk to PARS staff, and complete a scavenger hunt! At 3:15 pm, join Superintendent Becky Wiepz for a Wagon ride and tour.

WHEN CROSSROADS WAS A FARM

Wednesday, October 16 | 1:30-2:30 pm

Crossroads at Big Creek

Naturalist-led, easy walking hike. Easy walking. Explore Crossroads campus and learn about its agronomic roots.

BUMBLES & CROPS

Wednesday, October 16 | 3:30 - 4:30 pm

Crossroads at Big Creek

This program is intended for elementary school students but is open to all ages. Learn how bumble bees use buzz pollination for crops. (Indoor / outdoor program so dress for the weather.)

SIMPLE MACHINES

Saturday, October 19 | 2 - 4 pm

Crossroads at Big Creek

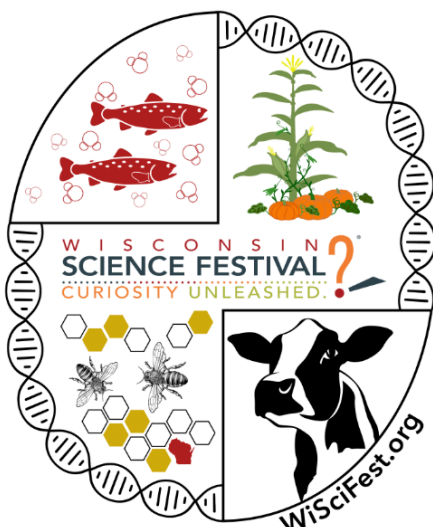

Join Crossroads at Big Creek and the Madden Tool Museum to learn about pioneer tools. Intended for elementary students, but learners of all ages are welcome.

MENOMINEE AGRICULTURAL HISTORY

Tuesday, October 22 | 6:30 - 7:30 pm

Crossroads at Big Creek

Learn how Menominee agriculture has been rediscovered in the forests of our region. Sponsored by Wild Ones of Door County.

2041 Michigan St, Sturgeon Bay

www.crossroadsatbigcreek.org | 920-746-5895

Inform. Instruct. Inspire!

107 S 4th Ave, Sturgeon Bay

www.doorcountylibrary.org | 920-743-6578